“ I never met Mr. Anthony personally, but I knew him through the lens of his loving son, Matt. Matt and I have been friends for nearly 20 years and he has always spoken so respectfully and with such deep admiration for both his parents. Mr. Anthony's legacy will be myriad, but most notably he leaves behind the love and kindness of a good and successful son who will join both his parents in heaven someday.

“ Family,
I'm sorry for your loss but know that John will be remembered by many of us as "The Wedding Singer" who we knew to book early. People in a number of audiences enjoyed him singing in that clear, resonant voice he shared with us for so many years.

“ Growing up around John and his family was a good time in my young life, i don't remember him ever getting on us Hale kids for acting up or getting out of line (I think he knew our Dad would take care of that} Church, fish fries, camping and all the good times I and my family had together with John and his family will always be cherished. May God be with his family at times like these.

“ I had the honor of 1st meeting Mr. John in 1979, I was a young city kid getting to experience the country life for the 1st time. As a young man I couldn't have asked for a better person to learn from. I will greatly miss Mr. John, and will always enjoy great memories spent around him.

May God wrap his loving and healing arms around the family and loved ones.
