“ John had an important part in my life as my Sunday School Teacher. He was always faithful to be there and prepared every Sunday even though most weeks none of the other boys in the class would come. Now as I carry the gospel to hundreds of men in the prison it is like John is still "on the field". He made a difference. Ken

“ My parents, Reba and Alfred Allen, were such good friends with the Newton’s many years ago. They shared lots of fun times together. They got acquainted through church at Southside Baptist. Johnny was a good Christian man and stood up for what he believed! Thinking about your family at this time!! Much love and prayers, “ I'll always cherish the great conversations over a cup of coffee prior to Church Services each Sunday morning. He was a very wise man and I learned a lot from him. He loved The Lord Jesus Christ with all his heart and being. I will forever consider him as a very good and dear friend and he will forever be missed by everyone who knew him.
