I met Pete when I first moved to Henderson (1966). I lived next door to Janine and Bill Turner. Janine became my first Henderson friend and Pete was Bill's best friend. All the comments about Pete's humor are certainly true. I remember him for that and his singing voice. He, Bill and some others had a band called The Twilights, who played at a junior high party that Janine and her friend gave. I enjoyed sitting in my room, listening to them practice. Later on, he sang in Chamber of Soul; everyone our age knew them. From there, he sang contemporary Christian music with his wife and my cousin, Susan. He's singing with the heavenly choir, now.

“ Share a memory of Mr. John "Pete" Owens or send condolences to the family. One of my favorite memories of Pete is when it had flooded in Henderson, surprise..LOL We were in his old truck, I walked out in front of the truck in butt deep water, over a bridge with him about six feet behind me, we both realized at exactly the same time how stupid this was and started laughing uncontrollably as he started backing up. He said "lets think, if its up to your butt right now, then where's going to be on my truck a little further?" I lived and will miss his contagious laugh.

“ Pete and I were having our picture taken for the yearbook as "wittiest." Don Lowe told us to do something funny. Pete saw the janitor's cart nearby and grabbed 2 brooms and handed me one of them. I was wondering what would be funny about sweeping when lo and behold Pete started dancing with his broom. He was one of the funniest guys I ever knew. Rest in peace Pete. “ I will always remember Pete's contagious laugh, his love of music and friends!
One memory I think of often is him helping me move from Longview to Henderson in is old green pickup. We looked like the Beverly Hillbillies.....
Nobody enjoys moving, but we made it fun.... Laughing and listening to music 😊 I will miss him badly! Rest peacefully Pete 🙏
