Tribute Wall

“ I posted another tribute, but am not sure I went through. My condolences are with Kay and the children and grandchildren whom I have never met. We were five cousins, all born in 1934 and we spent much time together in school, church and visiting each other and Grandma Nix. I spent a lot of time with Jonel and Ann at their Grandmother Williams house.

I hope you are well, Kay. I don't know how well you remember me as you were younger, but I remember you and knew that you lived near the Texas coast.

Would love to meet those I have not met.

“ I am so sorry to learn of Jonel's death! I have never had a better time in my life than visiting her and her sister in Henderson. We laughed at all their growing up antics and family stories of the Williams line. What happy memories I will cherish. Our thoughts and prayers go out to such a wonderful family. We will always remember all of you and Jonel especially.
