“ Joey was a bright star he kept our household laughing all through his teenage years. There was a group of six boys that hung out at our house and grew up to be an amazing young men. We are down to a group up for now. Joey had a beautiful soul, and a wonderful sense of humor. He will be missed. My prayers and thoughts are going out to Allison and the girls. I am so sorry for your loss. Rest in peace Joey, until we meet again
