“ Julie & I used to sit together in choir at First Baptist, Henderson, years ago. We laughed & generally gave Robert Hall fits! Julie wanted to listen, but I had to visit with her! We had so much fun~and she was so faithful. in the many years that have passed since then, Julie was always still the friendly one who spoke & was glad to see me...We are so sorry for your loss & will be praying for your family.

“ Mike, Susan, Ashley, Madison, Whitney, and family,

I am so sorry for your loss! Losing your wife, your Mom and your sister has to be so painful. My heart is hurting to know that we won't be able to see Julie in this life again. As neighbors during our young years, Julie and I did everything together along with you Susan. We had the best times. We picked peas, went antique shopping, and to garage sales with your Mom, built forts in the woods behind our house, sang together, and went to Bible school together. We experienced birthdays, weddings, baby showers, and life. I loved you both (and love you still). Julie was a bridesmaid in my 1978 wedding, and we sang together on several occasions as a folk duo. As so often happens, our lives became busy, and we didn't see much of each other after the kids came along. But in the last few years, I was able to visit with Julie again, and catch up on our lives. Julie was an amazing friend, and I am so glad to have known her. Even though we are hurting, I know that Julie is at peace, and that one day we will be singing together in heaven's choir. I am praying for you all that you might have strength and peace in this difficult time.

“ Ashley, Madison, and Whitney--

Your mom and I were the two-person baritone sax section in the HHS band for two years. I still remember many of the inside jokes that we chuckled over...and we did lots of chuckling, even if we got in trouble for it from time to time. I'm also happy that all three of you have been students in my classroom. It's a pleasure to have known and admired two generations of strong women from your family. Know that you will be in my thoughts in the coming days.

“ Susan, Ashley, Madison & Whitney -

My heart is broken for you all. Julie & I have been friends since 1st grade when we discovered we had the same Go-Go boots! We were friends all through high school. But like many friends after graduation, life got in the way of staying in touch regularly. I did have the opportunity to tell her I loved her the last time we spoke. We even talked about taking a trip to Rhode Island where one of my sons is stationed in the Navy.

I pray for comfort for you all during the next months. I know I will see my friend again.
