“ Always with a smile, a kind word, a big hug....a definite angel that brightened up any room in which she was present....she leaves so many with a void in their hearts here but I know she is rejoicing in Heaven for sure!!!! She knew my Dad and I know she is giving him fits up there....Rest peacefully sweet friend.....

“ I am such at a loss, this Sweet Lady who never disliked anyone. Her kindness poured out of her with her smile. From the first day I met her, she was a bright and shining example of God's love. I will miss KAY KAY for she always listened to my troubles and I knew if she said she would pray for Me, I knew she did. Behind Her window at the office was a welcoming smile and her voice saying "How are you, so good to see ya, what can I do for you today". I will always Love Mrs. Kay Kay. Now as the phone rings off the wall, she would be sad to have left each one behind for she Loved So Many and hated to disappoint anyone. She was Beautiful on the outside as well on the inside. Miss you Girlfriend. Teresa

“ The world is a darker place without her shining light. I met Kay 2 years ago & she helped plug a huge hole in my heart. I loved her from the day I met her & will continue to love her. She was, by far the kindest person I have ever known. So many times I watched her help those in need without expecting & actually refusing anything in return. I'm sure her Halo & wings are beautiful for God knows they are well deserved ❤️ I pray that God sends Clint, Craig, Charles, her mom & extended family the strength they need during this difficult time. May her family feel the love & blessings of all those who loved our dear sweet wonderful Kay ❤️❤️❤️

“ Kay was truly the kindest and sweetest person I've ever known. She was always ready and willing to give to anyone who needed help. I saw her give many, many times to help out people she didn't even know. She had a huge heart.

She also loved to make everything around her as pretty as she was... she enjoyed being dressed up and made every occasion fun! Her infectious giggle always cheered me up when I was down and her sweet prayers always lifted me up.

Most of all her faithful love of Jesus made her a light in the darkness....

“ Kay was a very classy lady. Always soft spoken and always had a smile. There are so many memories of her-we went to a wedding at Crossbrand Cowboy and we wore jeans(dressy ones).Hey, it was at a Cowboy church. There were people with long dresses and dressy short dresses. Kay told me she wanted to sit with me because I had jeans on too! She gave me a surprise gift certificate for helping her mom so much. Every time I saw her, she always looked good. Sure going to miss you sweet lady!
