“ We all loved Uncle Kenneth so much, and I wish I would've gotten a chance to know the man so many people have told me about. But he did enjoy watching me aggravate Daniel and he would just laugh. Also when I first started calling Daniel I didn't have his home number but I found Unc's number he would say this that boys answering service so he finally gave his number but he was laughing the whole time. I love him and always will he will be be on hauls in heaven and one of the best they ever got.....

“ If I could ever be half the man that he was then I would be achieving greatness. He and his brother were the greatest men that I will ever know. Honesty, Love, Integrity, and just down-right good ole country manners are just a few of the things that he taught me and that will keep teaching to my own children.
