“ Oh Kenny my boy, where do I start? We always had each other growing up, no telling what we would get into . That infectious laugh of your always meant we had done something, broke something or had some in mind that wasnt going to end well. All those camping trips with our cousins are some of my best memories, even if it was your idea for us to swim across the bayou and almost drown and daddy had to come get us in his boat . I can't even begin to post all the memories , we did everything together while growing up. I'm just going to think about those days and smile . I love you bud, give grandpa Washam a big hug from me and save me a place

“ My cousin. Kenny would text me almost every Sunday with an inspirational message. He always seem to know when I needed it. No matter how often we talked he would start with "I bet you dont know who this is" I would say "I bet I do" and he would laugh. I will miss his laugh most of all. He had such an honest, pure hearted way about him. When he said "love you" he really meant it.

“ Kenny you were always thought of fondly by me and my sisters. I know God is taking the care of you that you deserve. I love you pal and will see you again.
I wish I could be there to honor you in person but I am fighting the covid as well at this very moment. Save a place for me.
