“ Kevin Stevens was a wonderful dad! I will never be able to express how grateful I am for him being my father! He and my mother were married when I was about 7 years old. He cared for me and loved me and taught me how to be a good person. He didn't have to step up and be my dad but that's what he did. When he and my mother divorced when I was about 14 he still was my dad! He was there for me every step of my life. He was the smartest most wonderful most amazing dad that anyone could ever ask for and I thank God every day for giving him to me! I love you dad! The world just isn't as bright with you not here.

“ Kevin was a great guy and father! He let boys be boys. You could tell him anything and never did he pass judgement. However you probably get a look and nonverbal not a good idea look. He mentored numerous guys and never asked for anything in return, never told or bragged about it. Truly the definition of humility. Heart goes out to you Josh and your family.

“ I didn't get to know Kevin as well as I wanted to because sadly, life takes over our time, but he treated me like he had known me forever. April and I have known one another since she was 16, and I was, well, a bit older, and have been best of best friends all this time, even if time and distance did separate us, we always took back up where we left off when together, and were never separated in the spirit. Kevin knew this about us, and he showed his love of April big and I knew it was true and real, and I so appreciated him treating me like he had known me forever as well. He will truly be missed.
