“ My deepest condolences and prayers of comfort to all who knew and loved her. Kimie was more than just a friend to me, she was my family when I felt like I had none. She was my safe place when I struggled to find one. She was a Mawma, an advisor, an advocate for myself and my unborn child, a guidance counselor, a protector, a friend, and a woman who left a deep, intimate mark on myself and my daughters life, forever. I will carry a piece of her in my heart until I walk through heavens gates and see her youthful, lovely smile again. I am grieving with y'all. I wish I could take away your pain and heartache. I know for me, personally, I will embrace the ache of her absence, knowing full well that there is a stunning, breathtaking reunion in heaven today as she is welcomed home, with open arms, into Jesus' embrace. Until we meet again, Mawma Kimie. God speed. All my love and more, Cheryl Wall
