“ Just wanted to leave a final note to Colton, and Jerry Lee about your mom. It was a beautiful service and graveside memorial, you should be comforted by the words and attendance that your mom was loved by MANY. She will be missed for her caring spirit, great friendship and wonderful sense of humor. As Dr. Clague and I told you the ONLY person in 21+ years that remembered to call us every year on the Anniversary of the day he saved her life to thank us....pretty amazing, she was amazing! Her pride and love for both of you was hard to compare and some of the greatest love expressed by a mother,. You were as everyone says, "The LOVES of her life." I know you will always keep her in your hearts and she will always be with you. Please let me know if there is anything I can ever do for you.

“ Kim i know you can hear my words of praise and prayer for your sons, and extended family. Your family has always been a big help to us when when things didnt always workout so good. i remember when jim was in the hospital and he tried to bribe you at work one nite to help him get out. he told you u were his best friend if you would get his clothes and help him get in ur car after his illness, (2 wks ICU). he made it to your floor and said he would give u 25.00 if you would load him up in your car and get him out of the hospital. he wanted to come home..we still laugh.today about it. Jerry Lee your a brave soul your mothers first born. she was so proud of you.. she can feel your pain, your tears, she will be with you always. Bubba, she loved you emmensely you were her baby. You both used to help jim out at the river running lines for catfish.. he loves you both and bubba he's ready to fish when you are. lol. she thankd god for her blessings he brought her in both of you. cherrish these memories forever.. Jerry, you helped us with our truck once when jim had a wreck and i worked for scott every wrecker we had was busy out of town. scott asked u to go get our truck n bring it in. Your whole family has been a part of our family. we love you all, God will strengthen you and walk with you thru this tragedy of losing kim so soon. Our Lord hath done great things for us, rejoice in his grace , mercy ,and love. be glad in it. She is on heavens door, she has been called home to our Fathers' house. to live fore ever more. we will see her again soon, Kim Rest In Peace, oh child of God, your work here is done, i kno your name is in the book of life and he has called another angel home. Our thoughts and prayers to all of you and her extended family and friends. may you find comfort knowing we praise and give glory to a living God. she has been take by the King of Kings, to have everlasting eternal life. God be with you daily and give you more power and strength as the days go on. Loved Missed and Never forgottin.

“ Grant and I are so saddened and shocked to hear of our dear Kim's passing. What a special friend and loving mother she was. I hadn't seen Kim since Jerry Lee was 6 months old, on Caddo. When we met Kim, I had just moved to Canyon Lake from Illinois. Even though I was a Yankee, Kim, Kelly and Lani became my fast and best friends. We spend so much time together that those memories are now so precious and squeezing my heart. She was beautiful, inside and out. Kim's love was rare, and anyone who got close to her felt it. She will be missed, the world just got a little dimmer. Jerry Lee and Bubba, we are always here for you.

“ From the time I first met you at my dad's bank years ago, I knew you were a special person. We lost contact over the years, but through the wonders of Facebook, I found you again back in 2010. It was so good to catch up and see what each other had been doing all these years. It was good to finally see you again and hug your neck. It saddens me that you are gone, but I know one day I will see you again. Thank you for all the support and all the phone calls and for also introducing me to your uncle Kenny who lives out here in California. We have become such great friends thanks to you.
