“ My brother like his father before him, never met a stranger. Even though he often struggled to boldly show his love to his family, we always knew it was there. We will miss you big brother and may you catch that big catfish in heaven.

“ *Dearest Angie, Trevin, and Thea,
My heart goes out to you at this time. Your Daddy was a very good man and loved you so much. He was so proud of the strong woman and good mama you have become. He would sit at the table and tell us how smart you are and that he knew you could do anything you put your mind to. You have proved this over and over.
I pray that peace washes over you and yours. I am so sorry that you have to bear this at such a young age. Losing my Daddy was one of the hardest days of my life. You have had many hard days, but the Lord will not give us more than we can bear.
Love,
Aunt Heather*
