“ Though not blood, but rather by love, I called this sweet woman Mama. I loved her dearly. She was truly a strong woman of faith, loved God and her family with a passion. I loved seeing her smile. I would always ask her, "Mama, how are you feeling?" She would always respond, "Blessed". That was Mama. Never complaining. Sweetest soul. You will be missed by many Mama. What a legacy of love you have left us all.

“ I will never forget when she first came to Metro. She never changed and was always a grandmother, aka nana, to all of us “at that time” until now. I can only imagine my grandmother welcoming her when she crossed over.
