“ I will always remember her fondly. She gave me a painting of a basket of bluebonnets she did many years ago and it's hanging in my first bathroom and has been for years. So sorry to hear this but she was a wonderful person that I have many memories of.

“ Lillie Mae was once my mother in-law but has always been like a mother and a dear friend. We stayed close but got even closer. She taught me how to clean, bread and cook shrimp like they did at the Kings Marina at Lake Tyler, she taught me how to make home made turtle candy, she taught me so many things that have carried me through my life. She told me stories of her spreading Gods word with others when she traveled to Belize and other places. She was 100 % Republican & stayed on top of what was going on in the world. She was an avid reader and I so enjoyed reading books of Louis L'Amour. Lillie Mae was more beautiful than she ever knew. Her skin was so smooth & not much wrinkling at even 101 years young. I wished I had asked her where the fountain of youth was. It was my privilege to have known her, loved her, laughed with her and yes cried a few times with her. She was a very special woman that I admired. One of our conversations was going home to heaven for either of us was that if the Lord seen that we could let us be known to the other was we would come around as a blue butterfly, light blue being her favorite color. So I will be watching, waiting to see the beauty my blue butterfly will be. I can only imagine how wonderful the reunion with her husband and sons went, she longed to see them. Hug them all for me my sweet dear Lillie Mae you gave us a long time to know you.

Forever your Joy
