“ In high school i always sit behind Linda in every class for four years. Sometimes when we had a test that i did'nt study for i could always tap Linda on the back & she would slide her test paper over where i could see it. Needless to say i always passed the test thanks to her. After class she told me Larry you're gonna get me in trouble one of these days & then she would laugh and say i was just kidding. Thats the kind of person she was. I will always remember those school day's forever. To my good friend Bobby & son Robert i will keep you & family in my prayers. Linda has gained her angel wings
