“ My family met Linda and Paul Thanksgiving weekend of 1992. We were invited to Thanksgiving Dinner (a holiday they always invited those that other wise would spend the day "alone"! We had met Elizabeth and Tim at church and then they moved into the house next to ours.

*It snowed through the night and we decided we shouldn't make the long drive. When we called to say we wouldn't make it, they were surprised we had snow as they had none! They invited us to come out Friday when the snow cleared, which we did.*

Our families became great friends. 10 yrs later James and Rebekah married!

We have shared many great and difficult times but the love of Christ has sustained us.

I will miss Linda very much and am a bit envious she has gotten to meet our 2 grandbabies. ❤️

“ Thirteen years ago, Mrs. Jett was my first friend here. We had mutual friends, and I worked up the nerve to go and introduce myself. She sent me home with homemade goodies and excellent advice. She was so neighborly. It's hard to describe what's she's meant to our whole family. She shared her time and taught my kids and me so much. We will miss her.
I know that she's getting the gardens in Heaven all organized. I am thankful to have known her.

“ I never met Ms Jett, but her Beautiful Daughter (Beka) is my neighbor. When my hubby passed, Beka told me that you were praying for me, and you sent the most encouraging message to me through her. I wish that I had met you. Now, you can get your rest in the Sweet Bye and Bye..with Jesus.

“ To me, Linda Jane was the cookie cutter image of our grandmother Sally Harris. Our grandmother raised me with the same love, sweet spirit and joy of life that was mirror imaged in Linda. I will miss her.

“ Looking forward to meeting you one day in heaven. I feel like I know you a little bit because your sweet daughter, Beka, shared so many precious times that you shared. What a servant's heart you had. Your love for others has challenged me to be more generous with my time, talents, and resources! What a blessing that you are with our Lord & Savior 😊

“ Linda, My name is Ray Bolton. I never met you in person, but through your daughter, Rebekah, I have learned to LOVE you, from afar, over the last several years. You have been throughout your lifetime a loving and caring person. I am sorry we never met in person, but that has not prevented my caring about you. You have been chosen to be with OUR MAKER at a time of HIS choosing, and we will miss you. I hope your afterlife is a joyful one.
