Aunt Linda was a good woman when me and my sister Kelly used to stop by her house and visit or spend the night her and brother Floyd always welcomed us with open arms, I loved that they had a family church by their house and I would go help set up for the Sunday service or help clean up after service, I just wish I would have spent more time with her.

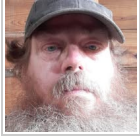

Your loving family member:

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Linda.
Sure have missed seeing her the past several years.

Linda was a sweet heart one day I decided I was going to walk from the doctor's office on the Carthage Hwy to the bus barn. Linda drove by a recognized me and offered to give me a ride. I sure was glad she stopped I don't know what I was thinking.

She was a regular customer at Dollar General.

Prayers for the family.
