“ Mrs. Akin, Jan, Stacy and families,

I am so sorry to hear about Lisa. She was always someone who would visit and seemed to truly care as you talked with her. She was a very dear classmate. I pray the Lord will comfort you at this time and the days to come and that you will feel His comfort with you.

“ Lisa had such a kind spirit. She always made a point to come see us when we were visiting Dad and Jan and we will miss her very much. We will always cherish the memory of our family weekend with her in Junction at Mandy's art show. Her laughter was contagious as it surely is now in Heaven. Though our visits were too few, we are blessed to have known her.
All of our love, thoughts, and prayers are with her family.

“ I was just getting to know Lisa but was so drawn to her sweet spirit. I sat with her and her mother on several Sunday mornings in church. I posted a picture of her at our last Sunday School party. We made stuffed fabric pumpkins.

May God comfort all of your during this difficult time.

“ Some of our favorite memories for me and the girls are sitting in the den floor surrounded by hundreds of shoeboxes she'd saved all year. We'd wrap and fill shoe boxes, Gran picking out items that went together from her Rubbermaid boxes full of things collected all year. Lovingly putting her heart into every single box as if she were wrapping a gift for Jesus. I have thought often about the hundreds of children that smiled when they opened one of her boxes. We will fill our boxes this year in honor of my sweet sweet mother and keep that memory alive for us. Love you Momma!

“ I am very sorry for your loss and offer my condolences. Know that God is aware of the tears each of you are shedding. (Psalm 34:18) He will soon do what was written at Acts 24:15, which makes the promise of the resurrection of those sleeping in death. (John 5:28,29) I hope when you read these verses in your Bible you will be strengthened and have peace.

“ Ms. Ryan was the sweetest lady I have ever met. I will never forget the kind and gentle words that she always said or how she could always cheer you up when you were having a bad day. She kept us laughing all the time with her hilarious remarks. Please keep her family in your prayers as they have lost the most beautiful person. Thank you God for letting me experience the little time I did with her. The mail room at MTC will not be the same without her.
