“ I knew her a Mrs. Christy many years ago at a small church, Pleasant Hill Missionary Baptist. When her and Vernon moved their membership, I was saddened to see them go. It was 1997 that our paths had the opportunity to cross again under the organization of Hospice. She was my uncles nurse. The day he took a real turn for the worse, she came to the home and not only checked on him to get him comfortable, but she prayed with our family. She was not able to stay the entire time, but checked in by phone and late that evening she was back as promised. She knew from experience that the time was growing shorter to just an hour or so and she sat with him as family came in and out of his room. She was such a comfort as she would help family say a final word of good bye until we are together again. May her family know the same comfort until you meet again.

“ Love and prayers to your family. Grandma Lois is one of the sweetest, most tenacious grandma's ever. I am so thankful and grateful for her love and grandmotherly insights. Such a blessing that Brandon was able to know her. Heaven truly gained an angel. Love and continued prayers to the entire Christy family. May you find peace and joy knowing that she is with our heavenly father. ”
