“ We loved seeing Mrs. Wesson when she lived in Henderson. She was a huge Longhorn fan and always had the prettiest nails and nail polish. She was always cute driving up in her red Volkswagen bug. Mrs. Wesson will be missed.

“ Aunt Lois was truly a wonderful lady that was loved by everyone that knew her. Paulette and I lived in Tennessee and when we came back to Texas to see my family, we had to stop by and see Aunt Lois and Harold. They would welcome us with open arms, make us eat with them and treat us like we were at home. Lois was so sweet, kind and just a great beautiful lady. She will be missed !!!!! Thank you Lois .
