“ My Grandmother was a true lady and a wonderful Grandmother. I can remember the feel of her arms and the sound of her voice like she held my but a second ago. She influenced my life more than she will ever have known and I hope that I am the kind of woman and mother that would have made her proud. I hope to that the teaching taught by her and Granddaddy about family live on through her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Knowing that she has now been joined by Granddaddy makes it bearable, but I will miss her all the days of my life. I love you Grandma.

“ The church in Henderson has always been a wonderful memory to Rina and me. As evangelists we had the privilege of watching the dedication of many friends to a hope that is secure provided by a love for God that demonstrated the grace she experienced in her salvation. Lonnie, We enjoyed your humor and good sense and of course, your good cooking. You were a stabilizing person in a world that is shaking and a genuine example of Christianity.
