“ Sweet Lula Belle...I can't find the words to say how much you meant to me (and my family). My prayer is that God comfort and treasure you as a Special Angel. I look forward to visiting with you in my prayers and counting on you as yet another Guardian to watch over me daily. I loved you as my Bonus Mom and shall always treasure your memory.

“ Lula, you will be missed greatly. You have always been so thoughtful and kind, sweet and full of joy. Heaven has gotten one gem of a person. You have always been a hard worker and loved your job. You took care of my Mom and Dad during their passing and for that I will be forever grateful. My children always loved you as part of our family.

My condolences to the family. We love you Lou.

“ Last week she heard me tell someone about our church making up bags for the highway 80 mission she came to me and gave me a twenty dollars and wanted we to the stuff for one as well and I put her name on it and it has been sent to the misson. I have known her for several years when I picked up bread for the jail when she worked in receiving. She was a sweet lady going to miss her Linda Simmons
