“ I just did a Google search for Lynda because she came up in a conversation yesterday and I'd hoped to reach out to her and say "hello". I met her back in 1979 when a group of authors gathered to discuss forming a group of like-minded individuals later named Romance Writers of America. Through the years we became friends, linking up at different writer's events. I quit writing in 2001 when circumstances in my life dictated, I turn my attention elsewhere, so we lost contact. I am saddened to find that my search ended here. She was always such a warm, sassy individual who I'd looked forward to a possible reconnect.

“ I'm so sad to hear of Lynda's passing, as she was a dear friend for several years. We worked on many a play together at Henderson Civic Theatre, where she was one of it's founders. Lynda was a talented writer, director, and makeup artist, and Henderson had lost a true treasure. My condolences to her family and fellow friends.

“ Lynda and I were friends and classmates, graduating from HHS in 1960. We had art classes and Miss Gould’s Latin classes together. Read some of her novels and enjoyed her contributions to the civic theater. Sincere sympathy to her family, friends and classmates.

“ I so enjoyed sitting beside Lynda at each of our annual Goodlett Reunion's held each 4th of July weekend in Henderson. Lynda was my 2nd cousin with her Mother Annie Beth being a Goodlett. Lynda was such a pleasure to talk with in a very knowledgeable and cordial manner. She definitely was not boring plus she was very caring and compassionate about life in general. I will always cherish these memories of her. My thoughts are with the family at this sad time.
