“ I grew up just down the street from the Keith's. They are fine people, and Miss Maggie was always so sweet to us kids. Ronnie Jack's house was an everyday "hang out" for the neighborhood children. We were always treated to cookies, popsicles..... the good stuff kids liked! She always welcomed you with an infectious smile. If our parents were looking for my brother Jimmy and I.....they usually located us in the Keith's front yard playing. Miss Maggie always made you feel welcome.

She and Mr. Jack both!

This is a childhood memory I have; however, Miss Maggie carried these sweet traits all the years I've known her. May she rest in peace.
