“ Acres Family, I am Carolyn Barnett's nephew and learned of your loss the other night while talking with her. Even though I have never met your family, please know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers during this time of great loss and sadness. I learned also of your organ donations after Mahlon's passing. I am a liver transplant recipient after losing my liver to fatty liver disease in 2009. I am a living example of my donor's family unselfish gift during their sorrow. Take comfort in knowing that Mahlon's legacy lives on through your unselfish gifts. May God Bless your family during this time. Respectfully yours...

“ Dear Friends - We did not personally know Mahlon but our lives have been touched by others who did. What a HUGE testimony this very young life has presented to our community. No words will comfort the empty hearts you currently have. But when you need to feel Mahlon's presence - stop and be still. God will provide a closeness with Him & Mahlon that surpasses all understanding. Allow God to be glorified in this tragedy and find solace in HIS arms. As Carrie Underwood's song goes "this is our temporary home, not where we belong, just passing through, just a stop to where we are going". Mahlon is in Heaven where he belongs. “ Mr. and Mrs. Acres raised Mahlon along with Matt and Michael to be great men of faith and integrity. It is heartbreaking to lose Mahlon this early on in his walk on this earth, but in the short time that he spent here, he made such an impact. He first and foremost loved the Lord. Mahlon truly loved his brothers in Christ and worshipping our Lord. Every year, he looked forward to getting to Super Summer to get deeper with God. Secondly, he possessed a work ethic that was evident in his devotion to working with his brothers and also present on the athletic field. Mahlon was so talented, and it may pain us to see a guy with such a promising life ahead taken so early, but God is in control, and He knows what he's doing. So many people have been affected by Mahlon's life and through Mahlon's passing. It is my prayer that people will not weep over Mahlon for long, but that people will rejoice over his newfound home in glory in his new sanctified body, and that people will realize that life cannot be taken for granted, that Jesus Christ is the only way to everlasting life. Mahlon was mature beyond his years. I'll miss him. But I'll see him one day soon. Catch a bass for me in heaven, Mahlon. And again I wish God's comforting hands on Arlene, Stephen, Michael, and Matt. Love all of y'all. In Him, Corey

What a legacy Mahlon leaves behind! We still remember your family sitting on the front rows of Millville Baptist Church when he was only an infant! Hold on to the stories, memories, and those sweet cherished moments that only a parent can experience with their child because they will forever be in your mind and hearts. Treasure them always and trust in God for His guidance. The angels in heaven are rejoicing with Mahlon now! We serve a Mighty God and know that He will be with your family each step of the way. “ Ruby Doris, Arlene, Steve and family,I have been so saddened upon hearing the news about Mahlon's accident and passing. I have no words to say that will give meaning to this tragedy. Life is not fair, but no one ever said it would be. I give thanks for your son's life and for his accomplishments. Knowing that he was an organ donor is so wonderful! I pray that someday you meet those that Mahlon will touch even after his death. Arlene, nothing can separate us from God's love. He will sustain you and yours and give you peace that surpasses all human understanding. At this time, however, as a mother of two sons, I weep with you. "I am the Resurrection and the Life," says the Lord. Shalom, Jan

“ The memories I still enjoy from teaching Mahlon will remain in my heart. Even in a crowded room he would always take the time to speak and share a hug. His life was a true reflection of his relationship with Christ. How comforting to know where he is and that one day we will see him, because we know The Way.

“ Arlene I really only know you from the hospital in passing. As one Mother to another I cannot find the words to say. As one Christian to another all I can say is God loves you and holds you. At one time I cleaned Sandy Siler's studio and would marvel at all Mahlon's accomplishments. He packed a lot of life into his earthly stay. He was loved and that is all we really have to give one another. God's Grace be with your family.
