“ Hoy, desde donde estés, se que el cielo es tu morada eterna la muerte es así, intempestiva, espontánea, certera la vida es así, bella, mágica, efímera. Tu sonrisa será la compañía ideal para Dios tu encanto la llave al paraíso tu mirada la luz que alumbre en medio de la oscuridad. Descansa en paz en medio de jazmines, claveles y rosas aguarda que lleguemos a hacerte compañía porque está demostrado que la vida es pasajera pero la recompensa después de esta vida es infinita. Disfruta tu estadía rodeada de ángeles, nubes blancas como la nieve y la inigualable compañía del dios todopoderoso algún día, muy pronto, estaremos todos juntos.

“ I have so many memories of my dad, but the one I would like to share is how almost every night that I would pick up Christian from my parents house we would stay up and talk. We would talk about anything from cooking techniques to family. Pretty much a little of everything. I will miss those nights dearly and nothing can bring them back, but at least I have memories!

“ I have so many memories that include Papa. =) He was a hard working man. He took me in and was always kind to me. He sure had his funny moments and made me smile. I was able to join ya'll on 2 of your trips to Mexico and I really appreciated that. It was a great experience to meet his family and see where he was from. He will be missed but we will always remember him. RIP Manuel
