“ I can't whether I met Pat when I was younger or not. My mom and dad spoke lovingly of my cousin, Patsy! My older brothers spoke lovingly about our cousin, Patsy. So the first time I met her that I remember lol, I said you must be Patsy She immediately informed me that she was not "Patsy". I could call her Maggie, Pat, or whatever, but I could not call her Patsy.

The next time we met....I flew to Shreveport to visit my brother, Dwain and his wife, Vonnie. They were not going to our Cousins' reunion, so I hitched a ride with Pat. She and I stayed with Aunt Jo. What a wonderful memory. On the way back to Shreveport, she stopped for fuel and I insisted on paying for it. She said, "I was making the trip anyway!". I let her know that I could not have gone if she had not provided the transportation, so I wanted to pay my share and show my appreciation. We talked a few times on the phone. Sadly, no more personal visits.

I will miss my cousin. Just knowing I could call her at any hour if I needed to talk was a good feeling. Thank you Pat for being "you". I was sad to hear of her passing from my oldest brother, Neil, when he called me Thanksgiving day.

God give you, her family, peace and comfort during this difficult time. Much love and hugs from your cousin, Merita in Clovis, CA
