“ Maribel, you were such a sweet girl, even during you bad times so still found a way to smile. And no matter what kind of day you were having you still managed to be a your brothers and sisters school get together's like a true fighter that you were until the end. It was so good to see you at Yandels school Valentines party. You put up a good fight baby girl, God just decided he needed your help up there. Fly high!!! You will forever shine like a star, love you sweet girl.

“ Maribel, you will forever be in our hearts. While we will miss you on this earth, we know we will see you again in Heaven. Prayers for your parents and siblings as they try to find their way without you. May Jesus hold them tight and give them peace that surpasses all understanding. So this is not a goodbye, just a see you later sweet girl!
