“ I did not know Bub very long by talking to him on Ham Radio. The time that I did have talking with him was of the utmost interesting topics and such a pleasure. He was always very polite and professional on the Ham Radio Band we used. Will miss talking with him. I know he isn't hurting in the realm he now resides. Take care Bub. Who knows I may see you in the future?

“ Bub was one of my Mom's(Laura Potter) favorite first cousins. She spent summers with him at the farm in Henderson("Uncle Buddy & Aunt Lonie's".) Bub & Phyllis would visit my parents in Grand Prairie and then through the years Mom & Bub would have long phone conversations. Bub outlived her by 7 years, so they are having a great reunion in heaven! We will miss you, Bub! ❤️

“ I have only known Bub since 1980 when i made contact with him on Amateur Radio on the 80 meter band . He was part of the Possum Trappers net. And talk with him for many years. He always welcomed anyone to join the group. He met at many a group get to gathers in Texas and he was always willing to share his family History. I talked to him and the group from all over the United States from a mobile Radio.
He will be missed by all

“ Bub was a close friend who I enjoyed visiting with at lunch every day. He was one of the original members of what we called the "old men club" who gathered at Hazel's restaurant and Country Cookin Cafe to eat, swap stories, and enjoy each others company.

He will be missed as a friend and Brother in Arms.

Kyra and I offer our sincerest condolences to Bub's family and wish them all of God's love and strength at this time.

“ I have lived down the street from Bub for several years. I would stop in to visit with him on occasion. We would sit on the porch and Bub entertain me with his stories of his life and travels. I'm going to miss those visits. RIP Bub.

“ Bub was on a group that met and ate lunch together at Hazels in Henderson. There are only of us left from a group of 7. We aye lunch, laughed and swapped stories of our time in the Military. Loved listening to Bub tell of his exploits and adventures. I will miss his jokes and many stories. We will forever be Brothers in Arms. Rest in Peace my dear friend.

“ Bub and I were in the USAF at the same time. Even thought we never knew each other until Ham Radio brought us together, We always had a good time talking about the F-104 fighters that we had worked on. Sorry that his time came up.
