“ Jean, I was so sorry to read of your sweet Mother's death. I will always remember those delicious apricot cookies that she made years ago. The day I came to visit y'all is also a great memory of her. Take care and God bless. Oh yes, thank you for remembering me with the card when I lost Weldon back in March.

“ To the family of Martha, my deepest sympathy. She was a wonderful Christian woman and will be missed by many. Eunice Spurlock loved Martha and enjoyed the many hours they spent helping out with activities at the Chandler Street Church of Christ. Mother has dementia and is easily upset. So I am writing this for her. I know she cherishes the time they spent in each other's home and all the visits they made together. May the Lord bless you all at this time of grief. Knowing she was a Christian is of great comfort to all.

*In loving memory of Martha,
Janice Spurlock Ballard
