WHAT I REMEMBER MOST ABOUT MY SWEET GREAT AUNT IS HER FUNNY LITTLE LAUGH.. I USED TO LOVE TO GO TO HER HOME IN HENDERSON BECAUSE SHE HAD A WATER FOUNTAIN SO HER BOYS WOULDN'T HAVE TO RUN IN THE HOUSE EVERY FEW MINUTES FOR WATER. I ALWAYS LOOKED FORWARD TO GOING TO HER HOME FOR THAT WHEN I WAS A CHILD.. ANOTHER WONDERFUL MEMORY WAS WHEN MY MOTHER,LINDA AND I WERE AT THE SYRUP FESTIVAL IN HENDERSON ONE YEAR AND WE GOT TO GO AROUND WITH HER AND HAD LUNCH AT HER FAVORITE CAFE THERE IN HENDERSON. SHE WAS SO HAPPY THEN AND WAS RUNNING AROUND DOING FOR OTHERS IN THE SYRUP FESTIVAL CRAFT TABLES. SHE BOUGHT ME A PLACE MAT FOR THE TABLE THAT SHE HAD MADE. I STILL HAVE IT. THAT IS AT LEAST 20 YEARS AGO.

“ I’m glad I had the pleasure of knowing grandmother Pinkston. She was a sweet lady to be around. I can still hear her laugh. You never knew when she would do Christmas, one year she had it in the middle of July as a swim party. She knew how busy it was during the the holiday going from family to family events and she wanted you to enjoy them. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
