

Mrs. Mary Liles

March 4, 1932 - March 28, 2014

Mary Ida Crim Liles passed from this life and on to the next on March 28, 2014. She was born in Henderson, Texas on March 4, 1932. Mary was married to Charles D. Liles in 1952 later moving to Marshall, Texas where she raised three children, Paula, Relda and David. After losing her husband, she moved to Tyler to live with her sister, Geneva Yates. Mary and Geneva enjoyed decorating their house and entertaining their friends and family even as their health declined.

Mary is survived by a son, David Liles and a daughter, Paula Baker from Memphis, TN, a grandson and his wife, Charles and Christina and a great granddaughter, Olivia Baker from Brighton, TN

The family would like to thank the staff at Waterton Inn in Tyler, Texas for their wonderful and compassionate care during her last days.

The family will receive friends from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm. On Monday, March 31, 2014 at Crawford A. Crim Funeral Home in Henderson, Texas.

Words of comfort may be shared with the family at www.crawfordacrim.com.

“ To Paula & David,

My sincere apologies for how belated this is, but I just became aware of Mary's passing. I have so many great memories of her growing up and then again as a tremendous companion for my Mom in the latter years of her life. She was a great lady that had a very positive impact on our family and I will always be grateful for that!

*Your Cousin,
John Boren*
