“ Much love to Mary's family. She was such a delight - and she wasn't afraid to speak her mind! She was, to me, one of the last connections to my grandparents who died over twenty years ago, so it was really special to be able to visit with her at Brookdale.

“ Mary was always so sweet to be around, when I worked at Brookdale years ago. She was just so determined that " we were related" even though our Pruitt last names were spelled differently. ♡ Her sweet , loving spirit will be greatly missed on this earth . My condolences go out to her family. God Bless.

“ Hard to believe that words right now don't come easy. Aunt Mary was everything you could want in an aunt. It brought great joy to know you were going to spend the summer with her and the family. The only comfort I have right now is knowing this is not the end. I will see her again. God bless you all!!!
