“ I am so sad to lose my dear friend, but I know that Maryann is in heaven. We loved her so much. She was such a generous, loving and special friend. We enjoyed many times together, and had such fun on the cruises and the many vacations.

“ Mary Ann and I were members of the same Sunday School class here in Henderson. I knew her to be a very lovely woman, very interested in the Lord’s work, and very courageous in facing the infirmities that come with age to all of us. She will certainly be missed here but lovingly welcomed in her new home with her Savior. ”
