“ Today is your birthday. You were the bright spot, the shining star in my childhood. Always a smile, that usually turned into your wonderful laugh. Off to Canada for the men to fish and the ladies (with 5 kids in tow) to stock up on Chocolates. Even that time we got lost you laughed and laughed. I was scared but I figured if YOU were LAUGHING, we will be OK. I remember when you and my Mom made Perogies together, and when you were all so sick, Kelly had to be rushed to the hospital. Then playing with little cars in the dirt with John and Mark was so much fun. I can still feel that JOY! You always loved all of us, your love never failed. Thank you just for being you. I miss you.

“ One of the memories I have of Maryann is on one of the trips the Keenagers took to Dallas to see Man of La Mancha. My mom, Delores Roper, was on the trip and my husband and I met them there to see it together. The first half was kinda slow (at least it was to my husband who fell asleep). When it was over, Maryann leaned forward, shook Ken and said he needed to wake up, the 2nd half had the dancing girls in it! Still makes me smile thinking of it! Special lady!!
