“ Dear Ones,Granny, my grandma, has gone to her final reward and may she rest in peace. My prayer is that my dear uncles and aunts, cousins and second cousins, be comforted knowing that Granny is home with the Lord.Miss Me, But Let Me GoWhen I come to the end of the road,And the sun has set for me,I want no rites in a gloom filled room,Why cry for a soul set free?Miss me a little - - - but not too long,And not with your head bowed low.Remember the love that once was shared.Miss Me - - - But Let Me Go.For this is journey we all must take,And each must go alone.It's all a part of the Master's plan,A step on the road to home.When you are lonely and sick of heart,Go to the firends we know.Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.Miss Me - - - But Let Me go. George R. MonsuerLove to you Granny,Your first grandbaby,Ann

“ Amazing Grace for such a life she lived. I am so blessed and treasure the many years she had on this earth with us. Im proud to have been her granddaughter and proud to have been named after her. The most amazing things i will forever remember about her is the stories she told of the many children she took care of at her job as a caregiver for the state school of retardation, and the love she had for one man all her life and how she could not wait to see him in heaven .I would not keep her here , knowing how bad she wanted to go..... i heard wedding bells in heaven!!!! i saw them share a kiss!!!!Be ever so happy for her my family!!!!!! We should not be so selfish on earth...I love you grannymary teresa
