“ Dale, Janie, and other family members, We were sorry to learn of the passing of Maudie. She and Cecil were two very special people to us. They were both greatly loved and respected by all who knew them, and were a special couple so far as my wife and I and our children were concerned. We will be thinking of you in your loss.

“ Maudie was the epitome of a christian woman , we had babies together, anytime I needed to talk to Maudie I could tell her anything knowing it would go no further.
Maudie was the wife of one of our elders, Cecil Foster a wonderful Godly elder and she was a good elder's wife.
I know Maudie is happy right now with her husband and son. there will be a large hole in Dale's and Janie's heart. God bless them, love you, Berle George Knew Maudie for about 25 years - I remember those great meals at her house. She truly I was one of the "Greatest Generation." Giving the most, but requesting the least. Our prayers with the family.
