“ I am so sorry to hear this news. It is so hard to lose your Dad and your husband. Jimmy would be so proud to know that "he" was able to use his lift chair. Prayers are lifted to the Throne of God for your peace as you grieve for this wonderful man. You already know that he has peace with our Lord and Savior. What a blessing!!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Max was loved by all that he came in contact with. My dad, Louie Campbell, LOVED Max. They had the best time working together. I visualize them acting like two 13 year olds playing pranks on each other trying to outdo each other. Mr. Max made this world a better place just by making himself present. He will be missed by so many. Prayers for all of you. Pam Campbell Flanagan
