“ Christi, I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. Keith and I are praying that you and your sisters will know that your Mother is resting in God's arms. I want you to know, I can't say how you feel, but I can say I have been through the loss of parents and siblings. Please know we will lift you all for God's mercy and grace.

“ I only knew her though Christi and I used to work with Christi. I always heard neat things about her, as Christi would talk about her at work. She was so active and I could tell that she had a special place in Christi's heart! God Bless Melba! Wish I had met her. Though Christi tried to get us together - since I'm in my 60's and a grandma too! Thoughts and prayers to the entire family. Judy Krebs (co-worker of Christi)

“ *Melba and I grew up in the Crim's Chapel community. We also sang duets as well as in quartets at church. Her Dad was our school bus driver for a while. Our mentor at church was Allen Yates who encouraged us to sing and worked with us on our specials. I have the fondest memories of her and convey my condolences to the family in this sad time.
