Such a beautiful tribute....I Love seeing all these memories....I remember Mike always had a smile on his face and always asked you about yourself.....he would ask a lot of questions and always made me feel that he was truly interested in me and how I was doing. My heart goes out to my sister Linda and the girls and all the extended family. Mike's love & presence will be sadly missed. He was a very strong soul and put up a good fight with his illness. He gave all he had until the very end.....God bless you Michael ...Rest in Peace

So sorry to hear Mike passing. A mighty kind person and a true cousin to me. Lord took his pain away and took him to be with him. I'm pleased to had a beer with him last time I was in Tipton when he was at my mothers birthday. Bless all of you. Love Morris :BUTCH: Graham.

*“ Sending thoughts of sympathy. Michael's grandmother and my grandmother (Matie Hinkle Smith) were sisters. I have not seen Mike in years but our families shared times together when we were all younger. He was always a nice guy with a big smile. I will be thinking of all of you.
