Mrs. Grant grew up in Woodglen Community and graduated from Minden High School as Salutatorian. Marion worked as one of the "Rosie the Riveter" production workers for Hughes Tool in Houston during WWII, where she also met her future husband. When she and Monroe moved to Texarkana, she worked as a homemaker until her youngest child started school, at which time she entered Texarkana College. She spent many years working as a bookkeeper for Porter-McClure Company in Texarkana before retiring. Upon her husband's death she returned to her original home place in Woodglen Community.

She loved reading, especially the Bible, and taught Sunday School for many years at Central Baptist Church in Texarkana. She was also a prolific writer and spent some of her later years writing her memoirs as a gift to her children.

At the time of her death she was a member of Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church, the church of her youth.

“ *Dear Family Of Mrs. Grant,
We have such fond memories of Mrs. Grant and your father, Monroe in Texarkana. We attended church with them and my husband worked for your father at Hudson Oil. Mrs. Grant was one of the most sincere and faithful christian lady you would ever know.
We send our deepest sympathy and prayers. May God hold you and give you peace of heart as only He can.
Sincerely,
Lawrence and Mary Welch*
