“ My memories I would like to share of nana... a day I would have to work over night, she would come home from the shop (pink and green) I would always vent to her about work, she would share with me about her day at the shop. We could talk for hours about any and everything. She always cared to listen. She also gave the greatest advice on things. Then i would realize I did not have my phone on me and it would be in the bedroom and B would text me while he was at work or on break trying to facetime me and i would reply back with "sorry i was talking with nana." We would always laugh together, I loved and miss our talks. I also remember this one time me and her were craving the same thing it was so funny to us, I believe it was homemade burgers, that lady made some AWESOME burgers, and ribs that was one of Brendens favorites. Anything she cooked was amazing. Some things I loved about her would be she really cared about her family, she took good care of us, and was such a sweet, and very funny woman. Whenever me and Brenden would leave the house i would let her know and give her the details, I'm very grateful i got to meet her, and live with her and B.
