“ *Mr. Stanley,
Was a very interesting person who loved his ducks and texas and was a great father in law. He was my hero in my time of need to help me leave when I had to catch a bus.
Thank you Mr. Niall Stanley, loved his Irish Accent too. RIP*

“ Niall was one of my all-time favorite people. He always always had a smile on his face even when I knew he didn't feel the best. He had a million jokes and kept me laughing. I love how he would always laugh at his own jokes - it made them so much funnier - and he loved to laugh more than anything else, I think. His love language was gift-giving and he did that so well. I will miss his stories about golf and kicking his cat for exercise. I miss his sweet smile and contagious laughter. His wife and daughter are both just as precious as he is and I will be praying for you guys and the rest of your family. I am so sorry for your tremendous loss. He was a beautiful sweet person and I will never forget him.

“ Niall was a humble and quite man who always had a warm smile for you when he greeted you making you feel he was really glad to see you. When he learned we shared a love of books he would bring me a book almost every Sunday! And he loved to tell me about Ireland. I will miss seeing him at church. Prayers for Catherine and the family.

Paul, I am so very sorry for your loss. I'm sending you my deepest condolences.

I am your cousin, Teresa. My mom is Violet. Your dad was my favorite uncle and some of my best childhood memories are attached to him. He was like the Pied Piper to all us kids. A sweet, brilliant, charming, entertaining, and kind man. He lit up every room he walked into and people burst out in smiles.

We all loved him. I have so many stories about Uncle Niall that I've shared with my own children, especially when I tried to replicate some of his great practical jokes. "Me Good Eye" comes to mind haha.

I spoke to Niall a few years ago and he was so proud of you.

Many years, many miles, and different countries have caused many of us to lose touch with family. I haven't seen you since you were a little boy. I'd love to connect.
