“ I am so sorry for you all for your loss. Nita practically taught me how to drive in that old studebaker of Ms. Furqueron's. She was so fun and nice. I know you will truly miss her and the world won't be the same without her, but as she has blessed our lives in her living, may her death bless you as well in knowing she is in heaven preparing to meet us all when our time comes and rejoicing in her new spirit with Jesus. May the spirit of God indwell in you and you find comfort, peace and strength to get through this tough time.
