“ I remembered Norma from St. Vincent's Academy in Shreveport, La. She was in my sister's class there, Mary Grace Cano. My sister, Mary Grace Cano, died on July 17th of this year. They were friends and both wanted to become religious sisters. My sister did enter the convent there, the Daughters of the Cross, and left in 1967. I remember Norma just as she looks in the picture to the left---always smiling, sweet, and she played the piano very well. At that time she wanted to become a cloistered Carmelite nun and I thought she had entered the convent then but I may be wrong. A lovely lady.

I am so happy I saw her obituary in the Dallas paper this morning. Thank you. I will pray for her, although she may not need them, they will not be wasted.
