“ Debbie and Phil, I am so very sorry to hear of your precious mother's passing. I know how much it hurts. She was the most beautiful lady, inside and out. Her smile was infectious. She was such a blessing to me when we met. All the times that I spent in your childhood home and her thoughtful kindness to me as the new kid in town in 1968 when my family moved to Henderson, made me feel welcome. I loved her. I'm sending prayers and hugs to you and your families as you celebrate her life.
