“ Olin Johnson was a good man. A good husband. A good father. A good neighbor and a good friend. But most of all, he was a good Christian man and it is without a doubt in my mind and heart that all of Heaven's Saints, and Angels rejoiced at his arrival. There were shouts of "Welcome" from every corner of Heaven. Though Betty Jo, her daughters, their families plus many friend grieve his passing, may they rest in the sure and certain knowledge that he now rests in the arms of his Sweet Jesus and will await their arrival. God bless you one and all.
With love,
Dorothy Glasscock

“ This is a quality man. In business, he did what he said, when he said, how he said and at the price he quoted. This is Christian integrity. What a pleasure to know him. God Bless his family.

“ Dear BJ, I have already shared with you by email how I feel about Olin. I will add here that Olin has remained a consistent, mild mannered, good man for as long as I have known him. Olin was not a man of many words but his actions spoke volumes of the kind of man he was which is as it should be. My thoughts are with you and your family at this time.
