“ I'm so sad to learn that Nanny and Jack both passed. I grew up with them in my church in Haynesville where my dad was the pastor, and they were like seconds grandparents to me. We moved to Texas in 1998 and stayed in touch with them until the early 2000's but I have always wondered about them. I have so many wonderful memories of visiting their farm in Henderson and we even had Christmases and thanksgivings together. They were both the salt of the earth and I will forever love them. They are in heaven with James now , and my dad who Nanny always said reminded her of James.
