

Mrs. Pamela Jo "PJ" Wilson

November 1, 1955 - May 16, 2016

Memorial services for Mrs. Pamela Jo "PJ" Wilson, 60, of Henderson, will be held at 3PM Saturday, May 21, 2016 in the chapel of Crawford - A. Crim Funeral Home. Mrs. Wilson was born in Nashville, TN on November 1, 1955 and passed May 16, 2016 surrounded by her family and close friends.

PJ was a resident of Henderson for the last 35 years. In that time, she worked as an aide in the Henderson school district, and was an Administrative Assistant to the Rusk County Sheriff. While these were her professions, her life's work was the loving and nurturing of those around her. PJ's love and compassion for those she knew and met, especially those she knew needed her, was her unique gift. PJ took in, mentored and mothered numerous children while her own were young, and many of them stayed in contact and remained close to this day. She selflessly took in and cared for family and friends when they were sick or in need. PJ had a smile for every stranger and an unprecedented capacity for love and compassion.

She adored her husband Rick, her daughters Aisha and Jessica, her son-in-laws Casey and Chris, and her grandchildren Trey, Addy, Owen, and Tyler. PJ took enormous pride in her family, and loved them boundlessly. Sleepovers with grandchildren, and phone calls and visits on the porch with family and friends were her favorite pastimes.

PJ had the heart of an angel while on earth and is certain to spend eternity loving and caring for those she left behind.

Mrs. Wilson is survived by her husband Richard Wilson, her daughter Aisha Cliburn and her husband Casey Cliburn from Nashville, TN, her daughter Jessica Rhudy and her husband Chris Rhudy from Henderson, TX, and her four grandchildren Trey Emmert, Addy Rhudy, Owen Rhudy, and Tyler Cliburn. She is also survived by her sister Janet Bullington and her husband Frank Bullington, her brother Ronnie Norris of Cookeville, TN, Nell and Jim Gentry, Ray Mathis, and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. PJ was blessed and survived by numerous lifelong and devoted friends, most notably, her sister-by-choice, Frances Bloomquist.

Preceding her in death were her parents Grady Shipman and Ethelene Barfield, and siblings Randal Norris, Gary Shipman, Sherry Hedgepath, and Marion Shipman.

“ I was introduced to Rick and PJ by a long time friend of theirs, John White. I had the opportunity to visit with PJ on two separate occasions and each time she was such a dear sweet woman, smiling and laughing, speaking to everyone she saw, certainly a special friend to all that knew her. As we visited she shared many stories of the children and grandchildren that she loved dearly. I also saw the love, respect and admiration that she had for her sweet husband Rick and the love that he had for her. I know that this loving family will miss their loved one dearly and I pray that they will have peace knowing that she is in a better place where there is no pain or suffering. She is with Our Heavenly Father, in his glorious kingdom and will be watching over all her family waiting to see you all again one day. May God Bless you and keep you! Pam House

“ PJ was such a kind soul and someone who was often a part of my favorite memories from my childhood. It has been too long since I have seen her. Her time was too short. Rick, Jess, and Aisha, love and light to you and yours. I know you are missing her sweet self.

Praying for comfort and peace for each one of you during this difficult time. "PJ" had a kind and gentle spirit and always knew how to make others feel at ease when in her company. Bill and I were shocked and saddened when learning of her passing. Our love to you and yours, Bill and Jean Blanton
